STIPULATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Plaintiff and Defendant hereby jointly stipulate and agree as follows:

1. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 6(b)(1)(A) allows the Court to extend the deadline for good cause shown.
2. Counsel for all parties have conferred in good faith concerning the necessity of extension of time to respond to and submit discovery requests.
3. Extension of time is necessary because while initial discovery requests have been exchanged, the discovery responses are not complete and it is anticipated that further discovery requests may be needed.
4. The parties agree that good cause exists for extension of time to respond to and submit discovery requests.
5. The parties agree that all discovery requests will be made by March 15, 2016 and that all depositions will be completed in accordance with the Court's deadline, by May 13, 2016.
6. This modification does not require a change of either the trial date or pretrial date.
